Dear Mr Webb,

Just this minute comes a parcel of letters & papers for you, from Wendell Garrison; — of course he has misunderstood your meaning, as to where yr. letters are to go.

I shall write him forthwith, to tell him where you are.

The parcel came to me by Adams Express Co. (prepaid.) I do not feel at liberty to keep the papers back <sup>& send letters by mail.</sup> & so I conclude to commit the parcel, just as it comes to me, to the Express Co. again, — also, because I think you will thus get <sup>all</sup> the sooner.

— I wrote you a few lines, on reaching home yesterday.

Yrs. truly, S. May Jr
